November 2021 Newsletter

www.takasumi-e.com

Hello my wonderful Friends of TakaSumi-e,

November is around the corner, and the weather has told us so. On some mornings I am tempted to turn the heater on - haven't done it yet though.

Thanks to the hard work of Christina Matchett, we have been having amazing workshops. She has a few more spots to fill, so gather your creativity and let her know that you will lead one. Grab a friend and do one together.

In October Deborah Pennell led a fabulous workshop on trees and leaves and colors and landscapes - all the indications of Fall. Thank you so much Deborah for an inspiring time! On Saturday, November 6, Kathy Romero will present her workshop straight from New Mexico! I love Zoom and how it has kept us together and opened possibilities for our friends who have moved away geographically. I am excitedly anticipating Kathy's demonstration.

Our classes are continuing on Zoom this semester, and we have not heard yet about all of the Spring classes. I know some will be on Zoom, not sure about the rest. If there are any in-person classes you will need to register your Vaccination Record with SDCCD, or proof of negative testing. If you are fully vaccinated, you can do that now and get it out of the way.

Tuesday Painters continue on - offering yet another great opportunity to paint and share.

See you on the 6th!

Respectfully,
Your President,
Alice

OCTOBER WORKSHOP

A huge thank you to Deborah Pennell for a timely and beautiful workshop which included fall colors and landscape. It afforded all of those in attendance the opportunity to explore the season while leaning and re-learning brush strokes and color skills.

NOVEMBER WORKSHOP WITH KATHY ROMERO

Kathleen Romero, a 15+ year member of The Takasumi-e Society, will be demonstrating a peony. She is a 9-year student of Sensei Takashi Ijichi and led two groups of members on tours in Japan. To really benefit from the demo, I suggest everyone watch the 1-hour video on YouTube (link below). This demo is rich in mixing colors, loading the brush, & brushstrokes. Please notice the contrast involved in painting the peony, leaves and stems. Link: https://youtu.be/5K_0Z6Hltqk

Call for artists for demo/ 3 Raffle prizes to be given out In December to Demo artists

Several more artists are needed for completion of the demo schedule for 2022 and 2023. Those artists who demoed in 2021 will be in the Christmas drawing of 3 raffle prizes (variety of rice paper, art supplies and a painting book) to be announced after the December 2021 demo. The 2022 participating artists will have a chance to win one of 3 raffle prizes, too, at the December 2022 demo. Thank you all for helping out to make our workshops a success.
